

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mrs. Leslie W. Cuzner of Burlington was badly burned about her arms when a kettle of lard on the stove became overheated. She threw it out of doors, and in doing so both of her hands and her arms were seriously injured.

Abe Trombley of Middlebury, who had been evading the officers for three years, charged with illegal fishing on Lake Champlain, was captured by officers Friday and at his trial pleaded guilty, being fined $15 and costs amounting to $29.19.

Superintendent of Schools M. D. Chittenden of Burlington cut one foot badly while splitting kindling wood at his home recently. The blade of the axe entered the foot through the laces of his shoe, not even cutting the shoe itself.

Among old papers recently brought to light, Fred R. Patch of Rutland found an agreement between his great-grandfather, Benjamin Patch, and his grandfather, Jonathan Patch, in regard to a sale of the home farm, dated Jan. 2, 1816.

F. B. Walker of Ruby, Alaska, who is visiting relatives in Wallingford, owns the third largest nugget ever found in Alaska. It weighs seven and one-half pounds. It was found in the "clean-up" in the mud and dirt taken from the bed of the river. The value of the nugget is $1,914.

Carl S. Jackson of St. Johnsbury, a machinist, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. His liabilities are $19,070 and he has assets of $125, of which $80 is claimed exempt. A petition was also filed by Daniel M. Toland of Bethel, whose schedule shows liabilities of $4,439 and assets of $3,637, with $820 claimed exempt.

Arthur Burns, a famous yegman, well known to the federal authorities in Rutland, has just been handed over to the authorities of Portland, Me., to answer to a postoffice robbery charge in Maine. Burns was indicted some time ago for robbery of the postoffice at Ryegate, this state, and after serving a sentence at the United States penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for a break at Middletown, N. Y., he was brought to Vermont and sentenced to the Chittenden county jail for the Ryegate offense. Last fall Deputy United States Marshals F. H. Chapman and E. S. Whitaker of Rutland took him to Concord, N. H., and turned him over to the New Hampshire authorities. He served a month for a robbery in a postoffice at Henniker, being taken to Portland at its expiration.

D. G. and J. S. Boozan have lived on the same farm during the past 37 years. Two years before that time, they went to Monmouth, Ill., from Vermont and worked by the month for Robert W. Gerlaw. They then saw the possibilities of correct farm management and leased from Mr. Gerlaw the farm on which they have made their home many years. Mr. Gerlaw had many tempting offers from other parties at an increased rental, but so well did the Boozan boys do their work, always keeping the land in a high state of cultivation, that the owner decided it was a good business policy to keep these men who had proven their worth. During all the year no written agreement was asked by Mr. Gerlaw, and when he died his daughter, Miss Mary Gerlaw, continued the same satisfactory arrangements with the Boozan brothers.

Bennington Population May Be 10,000.

Bennington's check list for use at the annual town meeting was posted on Saturday and is found to contain 2,558 names, the largest number in the town's history. Last year the total number of names was considerably less than 2,500. In view of the fact that as yet no special interest has developed in the choice of officials at the coming election, the increase in the number of voters, shows that Bennington is growing in population and growing rapidly.

A check list of 2,558 at this time should indicate that the town's population is at least 10,000 and probably a few in excess of that number. In 1910, when the last federal census was taken, Bennington was given a population of 8,698. The check list at the present time and the total number of inhabitants in Bennington should be at least 10,000.

Club for Rutland Men.

The trustees of the Rutland Pythian association, if their unanimous recommendation is approved by the organization, will open the splendid club house and ample grounds on Center street in Rutland to the uses of the men in good standing in the community even if they are not members of the fraternity. Considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon the association by a number of leading citizens to formulate some plan by which this might be accomplished.

This valuable property, centrally located, probably the most elaborate club house in the state, was first offered to the citizens of Rutland as a business men's club, but no organization was formed to take hold of the project and push it through. Enterprising Pythians connected with the Pythian order then took it up and consummated the deal—undoubtedly the most remarkable real estate transfer in the history of Rutland. The property, which cost first and last over $50,000, became the property of the Pythian association for $10,000. The association which owns it has financed it easily and there is to-day but an insignificant debt upon it. The organization as it is now is in no need of any increase in size or resources to sustain it handsomely.

It has been felt, however, by some of those most deeply interested in the property, as well as in the city at large, that some way should be devised to open this commodious and handsomely equipped plant so as to make it of practically a business men's club house, as well as the home of the Pythian lodge. As stated, this plan seems now likely to materialize.

GIVEN 15 MONTHS.

Rodney Hutton of Wallingford Said to Have Made 176 Sales.

Rutland, Feb. 8.—Rodney Hutton of Wallingford pleaded guilty in city court yesterday to the charge of selling intoxicating liquor contrary to law on six occasions and was sentenced by Judge F. G. Swinnerton to serve not less than 15 months nor more than two years at the house of correction. Joseph C. Jones of this city appeared as Hutton's attorney. State's Attorney C. V. Poulin, who prosecuted told the court that he was prepared to show that Hutton sold hard cider illegally 176 times.

Hutton was arrested last Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs A. A. Leonard of Wallingford and David A. Barker of this city on a warrant issued on complaint of Mr. Poulin following several days investigation of the case. There was an inquest in the matter before Judge Edwin Horton of Chittenden in this city Saturday morning and at it the state's attorney obtained evidence which warranted his going ahead with the prosecution.

This is not Hutton's first appearance in court. About three years ago he paid $300 for selling aged cider without authority and some months ago he was fined $50 for selling watered milk. It was Hutton who lost the turkey, for the theft of which Joseph Jewell of Wallingford was sent to jail for 30 days last week.

Alleged Burglars Under Bail.

George Parron and Thomas Martin, who were arrested by the sheriff department a few days ago charged with burglaries at the W. F. Byrne store at Center Rutland and the N. M. Burr store in the town of Rutland, were arraigned before Judge Swinnerton yesterday. State's Attorney Poulin appearing for the state. Both pleaded not guilty and waived examination. They went to jail in default of $800 bail each.

VERMONT POOR WELL TREATED.

Only About 150 Are Being Kept at Poor Farms.

Rutland, Feb. 8.—The fact that there are only about 150 inmates of poor houses in all the state of Vermont was brought out yesterday afternoon at the lecture given by Mrs. O. C. Ashton of this city at the Rutland under the auspices of the Equal Suffrage league. When Mrs. Ashton was chairman of the civil service reform committee of the State Federation of Women's Clubs an investigation was made through club women to find if there were abuses in the management of the penal institutions and in the poorhouses of Vermont. It was found that at that time there was only the small number stated of town and city charges. Often but two or three inmates would be found at a poor farm.

It was also found that there were no abuses flagrant enough to warrant measures being taken against the keepers except in the largest one in the state which is too close at hand to say much about and which under the present management is a most exemplary institution. Mrs. Ashton stated that if club women would take the pains to visit such institutions throughout the state, the mere fact that people were interested would in most instances be enough of a stimulant to the keepers to keep everything running in the right direction.

Mrs. Ashton in a conversation with Chaplain E. D. Fay learned that he considers the house of correction management as of a superior order, and that he thought there could be no real fault found with any part of the system.

Wisdom Is One of those very useful things which some men acquire when it is too late to use it. The wisdom of taking life insurance comes to some men too late to be of any use. Moral: Insure while insurable. RELIEF FROM PAIN

Remove pain misery as many thousands of others have done, by applying Minard's liniment, an old, reliable prescription. No other remedy acts so quickly or effectively. It is pure and antiseptic, wonderfully soothing, and is the most effective remedy for rheumatic pains, soreness and stiffness of joints and muscles, lameness, sore hands, tired, aching feet, pains in chest, sore throat, and for sprains, strains and bruises. You cannot afford to be without it, for its use is never disappointing, and it cannot possibly harm or burn the skin. Do not suffer—get a bottle of Minard's liniment from any drug store.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Barre readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

Frank E. Adams, 47 Elm street, Barre, says:

"I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, and they have proved a valuable medicine. For some time I had been troubled by my kidneys. My back ached, and I had pains in my sides, but Doan's Kidney pills cured the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Adams had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

LEACH-BACON.

Lyndonville Man and Burlington Woman United in Marriage.

Burlington, Feb. 8.—Clarence C. Leach of Lyndonville and Cora Belle Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bacon of 10 Crombie street, were married yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's church by Rev. J. M. Cloares.

The couple were attended by Irene Bacon, sister of the bride, and Charles Jones. The bride wore a blue traveling suit with a large black hat and carried a bouquet of roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to members of the family. There were many beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach left last night for a trip to New York and Manchester, N. H., and on their return will reside in Burlington, where Mr. Leach will enter the contracting and carpenter business.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

February Term in Burlington on the 22d—Judge Howe Presiding.

The February term of United States district court will be held in Burlington on Tuesday, February 22. This being a legal holiday court will probably not meet for business until the following day.

The grand jury will be called at once and will go into session to consider what business they have, which it is understood is considerable.

Judge Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury will preside and District Attorney V. A. Bullard will conduct the prosecution of the cases for the United States.

Japanese Needlewomen.

The daughters of the land of flowers sometimes curiously reverse European methods. They needle their thread instead of threading their needles, and instead of running their needle through the cloth they hold it still and run the cloth upon it. An English lady long resident in Tokyo once wrote to a friend that the impulse of her Japanese maids is always to sew on cuff frills and other similar things topsy turvy and inside out.

Two Important Matters.

"Now, Katie, do you know enough to keep your mouth shut?" asked the fashionable woman of the girl she was about to engage.

"Well, ma'am, I know enough to be at right, but the question is, Do I get enough wages to encourage me to?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Selfishness.

The selfish man suffers more from his selfishness than he from whom that selfishness withholds some important benefit.—Emerson.

Regrets.

For all we know, the gaudy butterfly may have moments in which it regrets the fine times it had as a caterpillar.—Puck.

Wisdom is oftentimes nearer when we stoop than when we soar.—Wordsworth.

ONCE A SOVEREIGN STATE.

Now Noli Is Simply a Fishing Village With a Past.

One of the oddest and quaintest little independent states that ever existed in Europe—the tiny republic of Noli, founded before Rome and maintaining its liberty for many centuries until Napoleon swept away its privileges—is today merely a fishing village near Genoa, but it is full of reminders of its former greatness and affords a wonderful glimpse of mediaeval times. Destroyed by the Carthaginians in 217 B. C., and who knows how often by subsequent marauders, there seemed no limit to her powers of recovery.

This quaint little fishing village maintained itself as a sovereign state for centuries, took a prominent part in the quarrels of Guelphs and Ghibellines, sent doughty warriors to the Crusades, commanded the interest of emperors and popes and only succumbed at last to the armies of Napoleon. Dante clambered lither over terrible hills on hands and knees and revenged himself by consigning Noli to his "Purgatory." Everybody is rich in this poor man's paradise, says the World Magazine. During the anchovy months it is not rare for the 120 boats to earn $4,000 in a night, or $75,000 in a season. Through fish alone a man earns far more than a clerk, besides which he has no "appearances" to keep up. Under these happy conditions he soon acquires land and houses, which afford a steady revenue while he sleeps or fishes. The earth here has only to be scratched in order to bring forth wealth, so rich is the soil and so abundant the water.

PERILOUS ATHLETICS.

Sport That Wrecks the Heart an Evil to Be Avoided.

"No one will gainsay the value and pleasure of outdoor exercise graduated to suit the needs of every individual throughout life," says the Journal of the American Medical Association, "but the species of overdoing called for in the intense competition of the great contests of our schools and colleges can no longer be defended by platitudes regarding the alleged psychological value of its competitive features. The time has come when statistics regarding latent athletic injuries must be reckoned with and the lives of our youths safeguarded by making a distinction between sane sport and insane participation in the intolerable strain of competitive games of the extreme type."

The same paper says the authorities of colleges need to be reminded in an emphatic way, in the words of Dr. R. N. Wilson of Philadelphia, that "no form of athletic event is sane that demands of the participants the semiconscious state of heart exhaustion at its conclusion."

It denounces the daredevil forms of "sport" that depend for their thrill on nearest possible approach to death by the actors in them, such, for example, as "looping the loop" in an airplane or driving a motorcar at "red miles an hour. Such, it says, are not sport, but degeneracy.

A Strange Situation.

"Humor is a very funny thing," said Blinks. "It ought to be," said the philosopher. "Oh, I don't mean that way," said Blinks. "I mean that it is a strange thing. Now, I can't speak French, but I can always understand a French joke, and I can speak English, but I'm blessed if I can see an English joke."

"Most people are," said the philosopher. "Are what?" said Blinks. "Blessed if they can see an English joke," said the philosopher. "It is a sign of an unusually keen vision."

The Treatment of Influenza or La Grippe

It is quite refreshing these days to read of a clearly defined treatment for influenza or La Grippe. In an article in the "Lancet-Clinic," Dr. James Bell, of New York City, says he is convinced that too much medication is both unnecessary and injurious. When called to a case of la grippe, the patient is usually seen when the fever is present, at the child which occasionally ushers in the disease, has practically passed away. Dr. Bell then orders that the bowels be opened freely with salts, "Acetol" or citrate of magnesia. For the high fever, severe headache, pain and general soreness, one anti-kamnia tablet every three hours is quickly followed by complete relief. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headache, neuralgia and all pains.

ESTATE OF GEORGE E. BISHOP

State of Vermont, District of Randolph, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the District Aforesaid:
To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of George E. Bishop, late of Orange, in said district, deceased, GREETING:
WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court, in writing, by Earle R. Davis, administrator of his estate, praying for license and authority to sell the real estate of said deceased, including the home place, situated in East Orange village, and the farm in Washington, known as the Worthen Moore farm, represented to be "said court" that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.

And bringing into court the consent and approval, in writing, of all the heirs to said estate residing in this state, and setting forth the situation of the real estate, and WHEREUPON, the said court appointed and assigned the 16th day of February, 1916, at said district, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of the persons interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place assigned, then and there in said court to make your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.
Given under my hand at Chelms, in said district, this 24th day of January, 1916.
GEORGE L. STOW, Judge.
